FORGERY AND PIRACY

PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles
The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.
Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered in so artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.
We have taken LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY
The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—

Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles
See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for the name and address on the cap and signature on side of capsule, without none are genuine.
JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B's name on labels.
FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B's name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.

Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout
BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.
PIG BRAND STOUT
None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Jr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.

Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale
Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.

Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s
Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.

Rimmel's Brown Windsor Soap
Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.

Lea and Perrins Sauce
The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLE SALE AGENTS.

Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch
None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULL'S HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULL'S HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.

Angostura Bitters
The market is INUNDATED with imitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Old Tom Gin
Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S celebrated cordial bears their signature label and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Invalid Port
GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.

Fine Pale Sherry
Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an aperea le light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.

Lorne Whisky
Has an enviable reputation all over the world: every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Red Heart Rum
Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded HENRY WHITE & Co. and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS above the Red Heart label.

Real Hollands Pig Brand
Imported by us and guaranteed of superior quality. Each bottle bears our guarantee RED AND WHITE label.

Keiller's Lozenges, Drops and Confectionery
So justly appreciated here, bear on every tin, packet, bottle, &c our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Borwick's Baking Powder
Every packet or drum bears our SPECIAL LABEL as SOLE AGENTS.

Sublime Tuscany Olive Oil
SAMUEL RAE & CO, LEGHORN. This famous brand is guaranteed a PURE article every bottle and tin bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label.

Nelson's Improved Brilliant Gelatine
A superior and economical preparation for jellies, blanc mange, soups, gravies, &c. Jellies made with the greatest facility in a few minutes possessing the whole of the nutriment without the impurities of the calvesfeet. Each genuine packet bears the signature of GEORGE NELSON and our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt
This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.

Anglo Bavarian Ale
VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE. GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.

Champagne Cider,
HENLEY & SON'S celebrated brand. Each bottle bears the RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Tea.
We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are REFILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.

Attention.
Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

QUIS SEPARABIT?

No paper that we know of has created greater anxiety than the Montevidean letter published in the Nacion, announcing a triple alliance of Brazil, Chile and the Banda Oriental against the Argentine Republic; and the surprise we all feel at the news in that letter is not so much caused by the alliance in question as by the opportunity which has been seized either to make the alliance or to communicate to us the news. If any such alliance has been made, it must have been based upon some of the bulletins published in this city on the 15th and 16th inst., copies of which, we have no doubt, have found their way to the capitals of the three allied powers.

We do not believe in any such alliance, because we have too high an opinion of the lofty diplomacy of Brazilian statesmen; but the letter in question is calculated to teach us great wisdom, to hold the mirror very close to the eyes, not only of our public men but of our valiant Tiro Nacionales, to show them the abyss we all escaped on the 15th inst., when it was touch or go between the two Governments.

There never was a more opportune moment to discuss the inconvenience of the separation of the Province of Buenos Ayres from the rest of the Republic than at present; and the apocryphal letter in the Nacion, announcing this triple alliance, awakens us all to the insignificance of our local disputes, when compared with the gigantic questions of our foreign relations.

Let our readers, for the sake of argument, suppose that on Sunday the 15th inst., the Tiro Nacional, with the firemen (bomberos) and Policemen had ejected the National Government from this city, and driven the troops from the Tiro Nacional practising ground in Palermo; that the President and his Ministers had escaped to Rosario, which was now the seat of National Government, and that the troops of the Line were by forced marches making for the Arroyo Medio; that the city and province of B. Ayres had proclaimed its independence; 'en fin' everything as provincial as in the days of old D. Pastor Obligado: let us for the sake of argument admit all this, and then place in the hands of Governor Tejedor and his Ministers this scarlet letter of the Nacion; we leave to our readers to imagine the state of public feeling in this city at the disclosure.

If, as is alleged, these three Powers have made an offensive alliance against this Republic, they have done this country a service of a most priceless nature. They have obliterated every political line that divides the people and the provinces, and they have welded into one compact mass a disunited and disorganised people, whose future was becoming obscured through a contemptible spirit of provincialism. To fight for Martin Garcia, plant the Argentine flag on top of the Cerro and annex Montevideo is a far more legitimate campaign than that on the 'tapis' a week ago or in the Nacion yesterday morning.

If but a week ago it was difficult to say what are the limits of "Tiroism," since the deliberate object of its formation was the defence of B Aires against the overweening influences of the Provinces, to-day the character of this great move assumes the far higher role of fighting the Montevideans. Let any man take up the papers and deny, if he can, on reading the leaders, etc. of these papers that a war with Chile or with Montevideo would not be preferable to a continuance of the present sad state of political affairs in this city. The patient reader of these native organs will naturally be seized with a melancholy at the prospect that this detestable bickering is to continue for ever.

The recent hub-bub in the Boca, the Governor's note to the War Minister about the sailors at Las Couchas, the open threat of a conflict of authority between the Juez de Paz of the Tigre and the Port Captain—these and a few other melancholy mems, such as the notices in the papers to the Rifleros and Tireros to come and drill, etc, show what the country really wants to be brought to its senses.

The discovery of the day is this triple alliance—a discovery that for our local troubles, etc, beats that of Pythagoras and the smith's anvil, galvanism, telescopism and microscopism. Accident seems to have had little share in this triple alliance discovery; it comes to us at a moment when many of our public men are off their heads. It is a discovery of the very greatest importance, and, like to all great discoveries, comes at the proper moment. The Tiro Nacional men now have a banner: let us give them a motto—

"Quis Separabit?"

The Tamar's Mails

London, Jan. 30th.
Lisbon, Feb. 3rd.

The splendid new paddle-steamer Cosmos, formerly noticed in our columns as being the first built on the Clyde fitted up with the electric light, Brown's patent noiseless hydraulic gear, and Zimmerman's refrigerator, left the Clyde yesterday for Montevideo, where she is to form one of the fleet of passenger steamers of the Fluviales a Vapeur Compagnie. On Thursday evening, as a farewell to Mr Elsee, one of the partners of the firm, who superintended the building of the steamer here, a dinner was given in the St. Enoch Station Hotel. Mr Moses Buchanan, agent of the company in Glasgow, occupied the chair, and Mr James Scott, oil merchant, discharged the duties of croupier. Among those present were—Messrs P. H. Allan (Union Steamship Company), A. Kerr, A. B. Brown, W. M'Millan, W. Macdermott, J Reid, and W. M'Aslan. After the usual toasts the Chairman gave 'success to the Cosmos, the Company, and Mr Elsee, their representative.' He said that the company and their representative deserved well at the hands of the gentlemen present. Mr Elsee was in, in fact, no ordinary man, He had come to the Clyde several years ago, and put an order for a fine steamer in the hands of Messrs Aitken & Mansel, and he had just now fulfilled a second mission in the completion of the Cosmos by Messrs A. & J. Inglis. Mr Elsee was of a scientific turn of mind and had introduced appliances into the fitting-up of the ship which he was sure would prove successful. He trusted Mr. Elsee and his friends would have the utmost satisfaction by the Cosmos, which was a noble vessel. (Applause). Mr. Elsee replied in suitable terms.

Vienna, Jan. 29th.

In to-day's sitting of the Lower House of the Austrian Reichsrath, Herr Offenheim announced his resignation as member.

The Recruiting Bill was adopted with the modification proposed by Baron von Horst, the Minister of National Defence, fixing March and April as the periods at which the recruits should present themselves for service.

Rome, Jan. 29th

The statement that, at the approaching appointment of Senators, no member of the Chamber of Deputies would be nominated to that dignity is confirmed. Nothing has yet been decided, however, by the Government with regard to the new appointments.

King Humbert gave a dinner this evening, at which the Presidents of the Chambers and of the various committees and the members of the Ministry were present.

It is announced that, in view of the critical position of Italian interests in South America, the Government will send out two men-of-war for their protection if the consular reports which are awaited confirm the necessity for such a course.

This morning the King signed a decree prolonging the legal currency of bank-notes until the 30th of June next. This prolongation is subject to certain conditions imposed on the banks with a view to paving the way for the cessation of the forced currency, without its being attended by consequences injurious to the national credit. In a report which precedes this decree the Minister of Agriculture explicitly declares that the present prolongation will be the last, and the Government has determined to give rigorous effect to the law for the reorganization of banks, especially as regards the cessation of the forced currency.

Dr Clifford. Bishop of Clifton, has addressed a letter to the Voce della Verita, dated Rome, British College, Jan. 28th, explaining Cardinal Manning's letter to The Times, and confirming the statement that Cardinal Manning and the English Bishops had presented a request to the Vatican for exact instructions regarding the rules to be followed by them towards religious orders as regards the cure of souls, but declaring also that they never intended to obtain immediate authority over such orders.

Brussels, Jan. 29th.

An Universal Exhibition of Art and Manufacturing Products will be opened on the 1st of May next in the Palais du Midi by the Permanent International Exhibition Society of this city. Foreign artists and manufacturers debarred from taking part in the special Exhibition to be held during the 50th anniversary celebration of Belgian independence, which is restricted to Belgian subjects alone, will thus be able concurrently to exhibit their products in the Palais du Midi.

Berne, Jan. 29.

A conference of delegates representing the Swiss and Italian Governments will be held next month in order to decide upon establishing an international railway station near the Gothard tunnel.

Madrid, Jan. 29

The Senate has been engaged to-day in discussing the new wording of three clauses of the Abolition of Slavery Bill which have been modified by a mixed commission of Senators and Deputies with a view to make the Senate's Bill agree with that approved by the Lower House.

Lisbon, Jan. 29

The Brazilian corvette Vital Oliveira has sailed for Toulon.

The Portuguese journals announce that certain treaties between England and Portugal relative to the construction of a railway and the transit of goods between Delagoa Bay and the Transvaal will be discussed during the present session of the Portuguese Cortes.

New York, Jan. 29.

The New York Herald publishes a despatch from Havannah, of yesterday's date, stating that the recent earthquake was felt in San Diego, Santiago de las Vegas, Pinar del Rio Cienfuegos, Mariel and other places. The small town of San Cristobal was almost destroyed.

Washington, Jan. 29

The Committee appointed by the House of Representatives has agreed to report favourably to the House on the Bill providing for the free coinage of gold and silver. The Bill sanctions the issue of a legal-tender certificate against deposits of coin and bullion, and prohibits any further issue of National Bank notes.

New York, Jan. 29

Mr. Parnell has written a letter in which he again assails both the Dublin Mansion-house and the Duchess of Marlborough's relief funds He says both committees are destitute of sympathy for the sufferers, and that the money sent to the Mansion-house will be indirectly used for political purposes in bolstering up the land system. Boxes have been erected at the Post-office and sub-stations in New York for subscriptions, at the instance of the Misses Parnell. News has been received from several more places in Canada announcing subscriptions for the relief of the distress.

Troy (New York) Jan. 26.

Mr Parnell held a numerously-attended reception here yesterday. Contributions amounting to $4,500 were received in aid of the Irish Relief Fund.

Augusta (Maine), Jan. 29

The Fusionist Legislature has adjourned until August next.

Seven Senators and 32 representatives belonging to the Fusion party took their seats to-day in the Republican Legislature.

MONTEVIDEO.

(Our own Correspondent.)

With regard to politics and administration we have nothing very important to say. The Control Office is still the bugbear of the commercial body, and the journals make very stiff observations on the useless expenditure of such a board. The valuations of the Custom-house 'despatches' are daily published, and the Minister is determined to carry out his old plan of bothering everybody out of patience. His plan of control is based on the principle that the more he entangles the merchants in a cobweb, the more he will be cherished as a man of strong administrative faculties. One thing is pretty evident throughout all his plans and very much to his eulogium in a family point of view, and that is that he does not forget the members of his family when in office, though, to say the whole while about it, he does it only with regard to the well deserving. I am told that Colonel Latorre will reassume office very soon. He went out to the Swiss Colony to settle some difficulties there between the authorities and the colonists, which were amicably arranged it would seem. His projected trip to Cuñapiru is postponed, and as for his intended (or supposed) idea of going to visit the different departments, he does not seem to 'see it.' The Chambers have done nothing yet, except that Deputy Baura has presented a project to buy up from private hands the islands of Gorriti and San Gabriel, the former on the coast of Maldonado and belonging, I believe, to the Lafone family, and the second near Colonia, where Solis Cabot, Zaraté, and other navigators first landed in the time of the discovery of the River Plate. An English admiral some years ago, somewhere between 1858 and 1860, if I remember rightly, tried to get this Government to allow the island of Gorriti to be made a naval depot for the English navy, and was refused on the plea, I presume, that it was dangerous to allow the English a footing on it; and now the owner of San Gabriel wants to sell the island to the Government of Buenos Ayres, a pretty how do you do, indeed! The next thing in the Chambers will be the public lands question and general survey of the Republic, both very much wanted, but which will not be carried out. The composition of the actual Legislative body, as a whole, is far from what is required as a means of furthering the public weal. Some clever and many very practical men there are amongst them would be very useful if they could, but the majority is a pack of 'ignorant got-up-for-the-occasion-tools,' who do nothing but impede the progress of business. It is worthy of mention to start that among the former there are a few good English names, descendants of English residents of good standing, such as McEachen, Young, Sterling, etc., all Deputies from Paysandu; and the French journal was only yesterday calling attention to this and saying that our Chambers looked as though they belonged to Canada or Australia. I hope they will do something that will give credit to their origin.

I mentioned in my former letter that the majority of our population had received with satisfaction the news of the settlement of the electioneering question in Buenos Ayres, but it is as well to say that such a result was fully anticipated, and as you perceive, justly so, owing no doubt to the circumstance that from afar one can judge better of effects, the same as, looking at a good painting, it requires to get a certain distant view to judge of its value. People here are of opinion that Sarmiento stands as good a chance as any other candidate, even Signor Roca included, stubborn as you like. Some one thinks that Mr. Pellgrini's assertion about another Pavon is not altogether out of place, if Mr. Roca be elected. But we must not deal in other people's business unasked, and so we had better drop the subject.

Something of the attention of the public is called forth towards the rumours of a rupture between Brazil and the Argentines, on the supposition that the latter mean to annex Paraguay and this State. It looks so absurd that one can hardly give any credence to such an idea, yet something might be brewing in another way, and the 'cordiale entente' between Brazil and Chile might have at the bottom some deep scheme, with the coming conflict (diplomatical I mean) between your country and the western conquering hero, on the subject of better right to the whole of Patagonia, which is a very naughty thing to pretend, especially as Buenos Ayres has a particular eye on that very point; long coasts, Magellan Straits, and all that sort of thing, so very well adapted to a rising navy. Deep plans, Sir, deep plans! You may depend upon one thing though—and that is that the boundary question is not an easy 'job,' and I have not the least doubt but what a certain foreign office thinks so too. By the bye, what about the Leones Island claim? Mr. Johnny Crapaud means to make a claim, on the plea that some French colonists are established there. This is simply absurd, as Leones was worked by English full twenty or twenty-five years ago. I will say something about this another time.

THE GERMAN CONCERT.

The grand concert at the Turnverein was well attended on Wednesday evening. The gardens presented the gayest aspect, and the avenues, trees and plants were all in beautiful order. The old wooden lamp-posts, which were merely kept for the sake of tradition, have been taken away and fine iron candelabras erected instead. Hundreds of gas jets illumined the place, and Caballero Bassi at the head of the orchestra shone in relief. All the 'morceaux' played were from great German composers; in fact, everything was German, and it is a pity Signor Bassi was not born in Celle, heading the programme as Ritter Bassmann, thus harmonizing the 'tout ensemble.' The concert opened with Herold's overture to 'Zampa,' then followed a light composition by Sala, and Strauss's 'Leier und Schwert' waltz. The most beautiful piece was Meyerbeer's 'Fackel Tanz,' introducing some magnificent parts from the 'Africana.' We learn from a fair subscriber that this 'Fackel Tanz' is a traditional dance in Berlin, and on great festival occasions the dancing is kept up in the Imperial Palace by the light of thousands of torches.

Amongst the many charming groups that studded the gardens the general topic of conversation was the daring burglary in the quinta of Herr Nordenholz, our esteemed German Consul. On Tuesday evening the Consul had been entertaining a few friends, who had retired at 11 p.m. It was a beautiful night and the moon shone bright in all her glory, when some robbers silently entered the garden; the dogs barked, but all were fast asleep, and the robbers bent the iron bars of the windows and entered the house. They laid their hands on everything of value, carrying off all the silver plate in the dining-room to the value of many thousands of dollars. This news created a feeling of anxiety in all those living on the Flores Road, the more so as this robbery was perpetrated nearly next door to the Juez de Paz, Sr. Carbalho.

The concert, meanwhile, continued till late in the evening, when the company broke up. The Turnverein on a concert night presents an aspect so thoroughly Vaterlandish that it is Germany in the heart of Buenos Ayres. The gardens were crowded with fair Germano-Porteños, who mingled the accents of Goethe and Schiller with those of Lopez de Vega and Cervantes; they were as fair as sea-flowers, contrasting with the generally darker features of their native countrymen.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday another 'susto' burst on the city in the shape of a revolution in Cordoba, by the Liberal party, the Gendarmes joining it, the result being several people killed and wounded in the streets. Rio Cuarto followed the example of the chief town of the province, and also got up a shindy. Verily, things look very unpromising. 'Quien sabe' where the next row will be?

The unholy alliance between Brazil, Chile and Uruguay is the theme in all circles. Some people believe it all; others say that only 5 per cent of it is truth and the rest 'the other thing.' In addition is this exciting topic and the rumpus in Cordoba, other very disquieting rumors were afloat yesterday; and, indeed, excepting that there is not so much Tiro Nacional work openly going on as there was ten days ago, the situation looks not a jot more peaceable. How it will all end, at home and abroad, would puzzle Zadkiel and Moore combined to predict.

Another unpleasant topic (when shall we have pleasant topics again?) is the Yellow Fever, which has greatly increased at Rio, and there is a rumour of a fatal case at Montevideo, which has undergone the hushing-up process. Here there is all kinds of abuse in the papers against the Junta de Sanidad, sins of omission and commission being laid to its charge by the dozen. The Heraldo de America says that even the medical assistants on board the quarantine lighter, with the Cordillera's passengers, have loudly protested against 73 human beings being cooped up in such a small vessel, and if they escape an outbreak of disease, it will be little short of a miracle.

There was much anxiety yesterday afternoon to hear what transpired at the special Cabinet Council at the National Government House. As some of the morning papers had announced that Mr. Villegas, Argentine representative at Montevideo, had been summoned here by telegram on Wednesday, it was inferred that the business before the Council was Lochiel's Warning.

With pleasure we welcome Juan Santos penning his thoughts in the Nacion. The appreciations on German 'Lieder' are to the point. Argentines take deep interest in the mysteries of German poetry. Goethe's and Heine's 'Lieder' have been now and then translated and reproduced in the papers: they are fair attempts, but translations always bear the stamp of re-warmed dishes. It is difficult to interpret the softness of Uhland's ballads, and impossible to give any idea in any language of the 'Lieder' of Heine and Goethe. Heine said he was a lake of troubled waters with many pearls beneath: all his poems prove the truth of this assertion. There is nothing clearer, more concise or deeper than Goethe's expression: the syllables and the dipthongs are chosen in his words. Juan Santos ably contrasts the more æsthetical feelings of modern poets with the lascivious, sensual and sceptical tone of the polite Horace, the dissipated Ovid, and even the divine Virgil. Heine smacks greatly of Horace, and he is the antithesis of Uhland. It is said that one day the heavenly Muse in a revel swore she would kiss the first man she met—that man was Heine, and his poetry bears the stamp of the sensual embrace. The Muse repented of what she had done, and for the sake of humanity imprinted on the inspired forehead of Uhland the kiss that revealed the poet in the 'Blinde Kœnig' and the 'Sänger's Fluch.' Heine and Uhland are as distant as the Poles.

We call the attention of our friends in the Carmen de Areco to the following extract from the Freeman, received yesterday, which shows the manner in which the Lord Mayor distributed the funds entrusted to him:—

Gweedore, Letterkenny, County Donegal—Rev. James M'Phadden, P.P.	£25
Killeen, Carraroe, Connemara—Rev. Father Mellet	25
Aughagowar, Ayle, near Westport—Rev. J. M'Evilly	15
Milltown-Malbay, County Clare—Rev. Patrick White, P.P.	15
Kilmactigue, Tubbercurry, County Sligo—Rev. P. Scully	10
Crosserlough, Cavan—Rev. John Boylan	10
Crosskeys, Cavan—Rev. J Brady	10

The Montevidean papers, perhaps for reasons known to all, are silent about the triple alliance business. The Lottery Administration has given the most complete explanation as to how the 100,000 pats. prize on Christmas Eve fell to the Hospital: All was on the square. There is no particular news. An Argentine lady, while bathing, saved another from drowning last week at Poeitos, at great risk to her own life; and a plucky little girl, only 12 years old, performed the same heroic feat for an elderly lady on the point of succumbing to Neptune's embraces. How is it that people cannot bathe at Montevideo, as in other parts of the world, without going to the bottom?

On Tuesday last when the special train conveying Col. Donovan to Campana stopped at Rio Lujan, one of his men got out at that station, and in getting into the train missed his footing, the train passing over both his legs. He was brought into Campana by steamboat train, where he died at 11.30 p.m. same day. We hear the unfortunate man had just completed his term of service, and was on his way home to join his family in Cordoba.

We feel much pleasure in saluting the Rev. John Leahy, the highly esteemed Irish Chaplain at Areco, who is now in town. His numerous friends in the city will be glad to see him in the best of health.

On Sunday next, the 29th, at two, p.m., a Bazaar will be opened in the Municipal Hall, Quilmes, organized by a 'Comision' of señoras and señoritas, the object being to pay off the balance on the altar, 'Nuestra Señora del Carmen,' in the church of the aforesaid town.

Three British war vessels are now off Colonia, for gunnery practice.

It rained like fury at Rosario on Sunday. The bakers there continue very crusty, and are still on strike, and the whole population living on biscuits, as far as farinaceous food is concerned.

The Romay Iron Company has asked the National Government to advance them 6,000 pats. on iron to be delivered. We hear favourable reports of this enterprise.

Count Patrick, the great Irish-Italian Wizard, will be here in a few days with his Countess.

We received the following by the mail respecting Professor Mactear's wonderful discovery of how to make diamonds:—

"The most important news lately in the world of science is the announcement Mr. Mactear of the St. Rollox Works Glasgow made to the Philosophical Society of that city. In a note addressed to that body Mr. Mactear said that after a series of careful experiments extending over a period of thirteen years he had succeeded in obtaining crystalised forms of carbon. They were perfectly pure, transparent, and had all the refractive power of diamonds and also resisted acids, alkalis and the intense heat of the blow pipe etc. etc. He had no doubt in his own mind and neither was there any doubt in the minds of the scientific gentlemen (Professors Tyndall and Smyth) whom he had consulted, that they were diamonds in the meantime he described them as pure crystalline forms of carbon. They are in the hands of Mr. Maskelyne of the British Museum for a rigid examination.

"Respecting iron railway sleepers, it is said that their use on the Belgian railways is extending. The Cockerill Ironworks Co. has accepted a contract for 300,000, and other contracts have been made and are going on at a similar rate."

WHAT OUR FOREFATHERS ATE.

A subscriber from the Southern camps sends us the following:—

I notice in a late number of your colleague the Courrier de la Plata, an article headed 'Un peu de Cuisine'; which, carrying us back to the time of Louis Quinze, gives the 'ménu' prepared by the Maréchal Duc de Richelieu for the 'Officier de Bonede.' It appears that the Marshal, during the Hanoverian war in 1750, having invited his prisoners—the Princes of Ost-frise and their suite—to a grand banquet, was informed by his Major Monsoon that a lean bullock and a few roots composed the larder. Nothing daunted, the Duke called for pens and paper, and drew out an elaborate carte, which will be found in your colleague's issue of the 12th of the present month, and to which I would seriously direct the attention of your readers. As the Marshal truly observed on that memorable occasion, 'Aujourd,hui la fourchette est le sceptre du monde.' To this modern Lucullus and his compatriots, the world, no doubt, owes a good deal of digestion, and possibly of indigestion also, though I may loyally add that I believe the balance to be in favour of the former. In the British Isles, on the other hand, where, even to our own time, a trifle too much solidity in the kitchen is the order of the day, any one perusing our bye-gone cookery books would be shocked at the revolting messes which we find were served up to our forefathers: I give one, for example, from the 'Forme of Cury,' compiled by the chief cook of Richard the Third of England, which, I think, will serve your purpose. It runs as follows:—

A Delicious Dish.

Take good cow's milk, and put it in a pot; take parsley, sage, hyssop and other savoury herbs. Chop them and stew them in the milk. Take capons, and after roasting them, cut them into pieces, and add to them pines (unknown, but supposed to be the stone pine kernels) and honey clarified. Add salt, and after colouring with saffron, serve up (Ugh!)

Much, therefore, I think, is due to the gallant Marshal and the other disciples of Belshazzar who have brought forward the culinary manners of the present age, in opposition to the nauseous exhibitions of former times. It is not impossible that the eating of the above mentioned (or some other equally abominable) dirt lost the battle of Bosworth field.

The gold market ruled weaker to-day than yesterday; prices opened at 30.80, dropped to 30.75, afterwards rose to 85, and closed weak at 30.80. There was a little harder tone for the end of the month, prices opening at 30.80 and closing at 30.85. The sales of the day amounted to 658.264.

Cedulas rule about the same; Series B sold to-day at 80¾, and Series A at 83⅞. For 31st March 35,000 sold at 83⅞. Treasury Bills at 77½, and National Bank Shares at 60½.

The Tamar's mails were delivered early to-day, and many merchants who had received their letters said that the produce advices from Europe were simply splendid, every account sales of wool showing handsome balances.

The Lamport and Holt steamer Memling from Liverpool entered Montevideo to-day her mails will be up to-morrow per Silex.

Exchange for the Italian steamer was passed to-day at 50¼ and 5.32, not much passed as yet.

The news of a revolution in Cordova was known on the Bolsa before the ring closed, but it seemed to have no influence on gold.

The French steamer Gironde took the following cargo for Bordeaux—

708	bales sheepskins
16	bales wool
20	bales hair
1548	bags maize
2307	dry hides
43	bags orange peel
3	horses for Rio
250	sheep do

The Italian s.s. Europa from Genoa, with dates to 3rd. Feb., has arrived, and besides a full cargo brings 700 passengers.

The departure of Mr Moreno to interview General Roca was the talk of the Bolsa, and much importance is attached to the visit, as it is supposed to be connected with the candidature of Dr. Irigoyen.

The gold sales were:—

The financial advices per Tamar are rather better, and exchange in New York has risen to 4.83. The following is the latest about the London market:—

"After an unusually long sitting to-day the Bank of England directors decided not to reduce the rate of discount. The weekly return just issued would have quite warranted a change in the minimum, since it shows great accesion of strength, but against this had to be set the additional firmness of the outside market and the declining tendency of the Continental exchanges. There was also a considerable, though exceptional, withdrawal of gold this morning. The discount demand to-day was quiet, but the rate was firm at 1½ per cent. for best three months' bills, while short loans were in active request at 1½ per cent, in view of the Stock Exchange settlement to-morrow. When that is completed there will, no doubt, be, for a time, comparative abundance. At the bankers' meeting this afternoon it was determined by all, we believe, except the London Joint-Stock Bank, to lower their rates of interest on deposits to 1½ per cent."

The samples of mutton ex-Paraguay sent to Paris have given the highest satisfaction, and soon we hope to be able to report the sale. It is with much pleasure that we learn of the success of this business so far.

Advices from the Santa Fe colonies report a still further advance in cereals there. The following are the prices now paying—

Wheat superior $14.4 fan.
Do good, 14 do
Do regular 13 do
Do inferior, 10 do.
Afrechilo, qq 1
Bran, qq. 4 rls.
Flour, 1st class, 15 per sack
Do 2nd do, 12 per do.

The sale of 4000 salted hides at Samora's saladero, 64 lbs at 52 rls reported, also 4000 hides Laurencenas, 64 lbs at 52 rls, and 3000 from O'Connor's, Colon, 62 lbs at 48½.

Gold at after-hours ruled flat; sellers offering at 30.85 for end of month, and 31 for end of March. Cedulas firm.

The news from Europe about wool is most favorable, and a telegram received from Antwerp in reply to a question put says that 5.50 to 5.75 for good Buenos Aires Antwerp run no risk.

The rise of ½ in sheepskins in Liverpool is another piece of good news, and Mr Reepen sold 60 doz. camp skins at 34 rls., which is a very high figure.

Politics were very much discussed on 'Change, and some leading English merchants suggest that the best candidate to succeed Governor Tejedor is General Bartholomew Mitre. There is news of much import from Montevideo, but it is kept up; meanwhile one telegram broaches the real news.

The Tamar has brought out ten thousand rolls of wire to De la Zoppa, which has been sold to Mr Zomborain.

Mr Le Bas, of Montevideo, was welcomed on 'Change; he reports business down there very quiet now.

Messrs Peyredieu and Bradley sold to-day 1800 ar. fine mestizo wool from Mr Thos. Gaynor's estancia at Mar Chiquita, at the splendid figure of 124 m/c, and well does Mr Gaynor deserve this high price, since he imports from Europe the very best rams for his flocks, and was the only Irish sheepfarmer we saw in Paris at the exhibition.

Sold by Peyredieu and Bradley—

1000	ar. wool, Azul, Bourde, 82
2000	do Sierras, Riobo, 90

Exchange was done to-day at 50⅛ and 50½ and 5.30 and 5.32.

The Herschell, that sails on Monday, takes a mail for the steamer leaving Rio for United States.

Dr Winsberg, the well-kuown Dentist, has sold 1,000 arr. grapes at Los Olivos, at 20 m/c per arr. to a party in Belgrano, who is this year manufacturing claret.

Mr Reepen sold to-day—

800 ar. lambs woal at 114

Mr Casey sold—

1200	arr. wool 92.
1600	do 100
900	do 115

The news about wool from the Plazas is that everything in deposit has been sold save 350,000 ar., and good wools are now so scarce and so dear that some dear friends, wool buyers, are preparing to leave. Next Sunday will be the farewell Sunday at the Tigre for some of the most brilliantly successful wool exporters of the Plate.

The new steamer Cosmos sailed from Greenock on 24th Jan. for Montevideo. She was built under the superintendance of Thomas Elsee, Esq., of Salto, for the Mensagerias Fluviales a Vapor. She has electric lights for saloons and on deck.

The Custom House receipts to-day were 47,488 pats.

At afterhours the following sales:—

We are much indebted to Mr J A Gray, purser of the R.M.S. Tamar, for the following interesting mems. summary &c.:—

This is to inform you of the arrival of the R.M.S.P. Tamar, Captain W Chapman, here Montevideo to-day 25th Feb. from Southampton whence she sailed on the 30th ultimo and left the undermentioned ports en route on the following dates, viz:—

Carril, 2nd instant
Vigo, 3rd inst.
Lisbon, 4th inst.
St. Vincent, 10th inst.

At Southampton £173,000 in sovereigns were taken on board for the River Plate of which £135,000 were landed at Montevideo, and the balance (£38,000) is deliverable at your port. The weather experienced throughout the voyage was fine. Dense fogs and severe frosts prevailed over England immediately previous to our departure, which, however, shewed signs of breaking up, owing to a gradual change of wind from N.E. to S. and S.W. The distress in Ireland, especially in the West and South, was becoming more and more intense as the winter advanced, notwithstanding the vigorous efforts made by the general and local aid committees who deplored the insufficiency of the amounts hitherto subscribed to meet the many and heartrending demands made upon them. Indeed, a very gloomy and sad prospect awaits the starving poor, if aid be not more quickly and generously given them. Earnest and renewed appeals to the generosity of the English public were being made by the Duchess of Marlborough and the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who were of unanimous opinion that if assistance in the shape of increased subscriptions be not still given, sufferings surpassing those already experienced will have to be endured by many as the spring sets in. The small farmer population of whole districts have been obliged to eat their seed potatoes, and so they will be unable to renew their crops, if the public or the Government come not to their relief. Politics in England were commanding increased attention in view of the approaching opening of Parliament, which was to be done by the Queen in person. The election for the vacant seat in Liverpool was being looked upon as a test of political strength, and the liberal candidate, Lord Ramsay, had secured the promise of the Home Rule vote for that constituency. Rumours were afloat to the effect that the Government's programme for the coming session would contain propositions which for liberality would outstrip those entertained by the liberals themselves.

Mr Woodgate's report to the Prest. of the Argentine Gas Comp. gives the following—

"I have the pleasure of presenting you the report of the Company for the year 1879, with the balance of the 31st Dec. The year has not proved as satisfactory, as anticipated. On the 2nd Feb. the great gale carried of the roofing of the coal depôt, which had to be reconstructed in a more solid manner. Besides two explosions took place, happily not injuring anybody, but involving some damage. At the time of the accident there was little gas in the pipes, and some provisional workmanship had to be made not to interrupt the public service. The cause of the accidents is attributed to the accumulation of hard extraneous matters in the hydraulic pipe. At the risk of their lives the engineer and the workmen made the repairs night and day. These incidents have occasioned considerable expenses to the Company to the amount of $100,000 m/c. The change in the level of the Calle Cuyo led to further expense in raising the main pipe; this led to the discovery of many gas escapes. There has been an increase of 2 o/o in the gas let out, which shows increasing consumption, in spite of the opposition of two Companies. There is, besides, a notable increase in the sale of coke. The coal account shows a surplus expense of $120,000 m/c over 1878. This increase has been occasioned by the higher value of coal, loss in exchange, the accidents to the pipes, and the efforts of the Company to give gas from Cannel coal. The general expenses show a decrease of $33,562 m/c; this decrease is only apparent, as the wages of the capataz, which figured in this item, have been transferred to the new account. Distribution of gas, cuenta de conservacion figures for $24,776 m/c, but reaches in reality $156,776 m/c, as the expenses of the extraordinary repairs have been charged to three years, $31,000 m/c each, thus leaving $62,000 m/c for 1880 and 1881. Esplotacion—figures for $34,866 m/c. interests paid, the third of this sum corresponds to capital lent by the shareholders, and which has already been paid. From the balance of this account $881,866 m/c, which have been passed to profit and loss account, must be deducted $65,272 m/c bad debts, which leaves a net profit for the year of $816,594 m/c; this added to the balance of the profit and loss account gives a total of $847,547 m/c, the distribution of which will be decided by the Directory according to the statutes. The balance shews that the Company is nearly entirely out of debt, only one remaining, that of Fry Miers & Co. for coal; half of the latter has already been paid. There is a good stock of coal on hand; in the accounts the bad debts have been written off. The results of the year's operations do not satisfy me, but this is due to extraordinary events. The new year has opened under better auspices, and coal is cheaper."

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.
National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs." M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

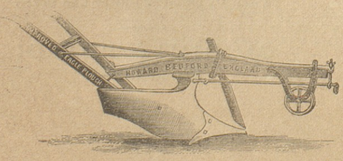
Howard's Improved American Plough.



Tens of Thousands in use.

Made of English Oak, which is universally admitted to be the most durable and the strongest oak timber known. The wooden beams have a plate of wrought iron upon the top, from end to end, which without materially increasing the weight, adds greatly to the strength of the Implements.

The shares are hardened upon J. & F. Howard's well known patented water-chill process, which renders them not only tough and hard, but ensures their wearing better and longer than when made by any other process.
